DIABOLICAL OUTBAGE

Rape Committed on a Little Girl not Ter

On Saturday last a most brutal rape was con mitted on the person of a little girl by a flend in human shape, whose unbridled lust was not restrained even by the ties of relationship. The occurrence took place in the 5th civil district of this county, as we are informed by Deputy Sheriff John Gibbs,

The perpetrator of the outrage was a man named James Bright, and the victim a little girl searcely ten years old, the daughter of Mr. David Myers, a Federal soldier in the late war. now deceased. The little girl was a niece of Bright's wife, and that the heinous crime was premeditated was fully demonstrated by proof on the preliminary trial, as we are told.

Bright was at work in a field some distance from the house, and told the child to go there and take an armfull of bark to the kitchen, to be used as fuel, and when she came, in compliance with his directions, the unnatural crime was perpetrated. Her tender age was no protection from this monster, and childish innocence no barrier to the consummation of the foul deed that would blacken the soul of the flend incar-

The scoundrel was arrested and tried before John Lester, Esq., on Sunday, who bound him over in the sum of $2,000 to appear for trial at the next term of the Criminal Court. Our informant states that the indignation of the community where the outrage wasc ommitted is very great against Bright, and it was with difficulty his brother-in-law was restrained from inflicting summary vengeance on the dastardly

Agents. Railroad circles in Atlanta, Ga., have been much excited of late in consequence of a heavy party of emigrants who had made up their mind to emigrate to Denver City. The question was, who should carry them and sell the tickets. The party having collected at Cleveland, Tennessee, to the number of nearly one hundred, the agents of the various railroads flocked thither on Monday last. The New Era, of the Gate City, in its issue of the 12th inst., gives the following account of the scramble for the sale of tickets :

There was Trobridge, the handsome agent of the Louisville and Nashville, assisted by Mr. Robinson of the same line, Mr. Osborn of the Nashville and Chattaneoga was on hand to lend his assistance in their behalf. The N. Mo. was represented by Mr. Oates while the Memphis and Charleston interests were cared for by Messrs. Akers and McGill. Such an amount of buzzing, buttonholing and electioneering has rarely been seen. It was diamond cut diamond. Akers and McGill had a quick consultation. The party were congregated in the baggage-room, McGill got an idea. Springing on a trunk, which was handily near, off came his hat, and gracefully waving it he bowed, smiled, commanded attention and let fly a regular built stump speech, at the conclusion a regular built stump speech, at the conclusion of which the entire party voted him a trump. Akers smole a ghastly smile. Trobridge gracefully retreated. Oates went to seed. Robinson and Osborn discussed Nashville politics while Tom served out the pasteboard and pocketed the spens. The Memphis and Charleston were triumphant, and all through McGill's oratorical powers. Take it all in all, it was a rich scene,

WHOLESALE MARKET REPORT. Beview of the Grain and Produce Market During the Week.

OFFICE OF THE DAILY CHRONICLE. KNOXVILLE, TENN., April 10th, 1871. Considerable change has occurred since our last report. Wheat has exhibited a marked decline, and from the stringency of the money market is likely to fall still lower. Corn has slightly declined. A large amount of grain is in store, and the market is abundantly supplied. High prices paid for fancy lots during the past two weeks have rendered farmers averse to selling even at better prices than we now quote, and it $500 i is probable they will hold the remainder of their stock in anticipation of another rise. This is not likely to occur, however, and if produce continues to decline we may expect a still greater tightness in money matters. This is the opinion of leading dealers, who, with an ample stock, complain of few Southern orders.
